

Paul M. Swoboda P.E.

Education:

Bachelor of Science in Electrical Engineering
University of Texas, Austin – 1974

Professional History:

1985 – Present	Owner of Swoboda Engineering
1983 – 1990	Senior Project Engineer, Construction Superintendent, and Maintenance Superintendent for Texas Municipal Power Agency, a municipal run power plant.
1982 – 1983	Construction Engineer for H.B. Zachry Co.
1978 – 1982	Scheduler and Maintenance Superintendent for San Miguel Electric Corp.
1974 – 1978	Project Engineer for San Antonio City Public Service Board.

Professional Activities:

- ◆ Registered Engineer since 1982 in the State of Texas
- ◆ Member of the National Society of Professional Engineers
- ◆ Member of the Texas Society of Professional Engineers – Brazos Valley Chapter.
 - ◆ Society Treasurer for 9 years
 - ◆ Brazos Valley Engineer of the Year 2000
- ◆ Member of the American Society of Heating, Refrigeration, and Air Conditioning Engineers
- ◆ Member Southern Building Code Congress International
- ◆ Member College Station Construction Board of Adjustments and Appeals

Experience:

Paul Swoboda has experience in all disciplines of the MEP consulting business, from interior and exterior lighting, communication, fire alarm, emergency power, and security systems to HVAC and plumbing systems. Project experience includes restaurants, retail, banks, high rise office buildings, educational facilities (elementary – college facilities), sports complexes, fellowship halls, institutional facilities, and industrial manufacturing plants.